MODERN FOREIGN LANGUAGES (MFL)

Cross phase termly MFL Network meetings

Greenwich LA and Goldsmiths University of London

KS1 – KS4 class teachers

Each session will feature a presentation from a prestigious key note speaker on a topic relevant to language teachers across key stages 1, 2 3 and 4. In addition Susi Sahml from Goldsmiths will facilitate a session in which good practice can be shared. These popular and well attended sessions are a great way for MFL teachers, who often work in isolation in primary schools in particular, to network and share ideas, resources, and materials, which can be put into immediate use in the classroom. They also provide that invaluable opportunity to meet teachers from different phases and look at learning language across the key stages.

Dates: 1st December

Time: 2-4pm

Venue: Professional Development Centre
1, Waterdale Road,
SE2 OXT

Free to Greenwich schools or £40 per delegate for other Boroughs

DIRECT SERVICES TO SCHOOLS

Direct Services to Schools

Royal Borough of Greenwich

Direct Services to Schools is pleased to present its 3rd annual CPD brochure, demonstrating a commitment to provide a good value, high quality robust programme that is both reactive and proactive in meeting the needs of whole school CPD.

Its aim is to work with schools to develop, motivate and inspire school staff and Governors to achieve outstanding learning and outcomes for children and young people.

It offers over 300 different courses for all members of school staff to book onto, or if you prefer, you can also access high quality training delivered in-house either by the tailoring of existing courses or the creation of bespoke courses specifically to your needs.

To apply for any of the courses, sessions or workshops offered, please visit the Direct Services to Schools website:
